All things Egyptian had a burst of popularity during the 1920s in British society, in large part due to the discovery of King Tut's Tomb by a British Lord in 1922. The Crawley family of Downton Abbey undoubtedly would have been aware of the event. The exotic prints in this collection are influenced by Egyptian hieroglyphics.

Making the Quilt

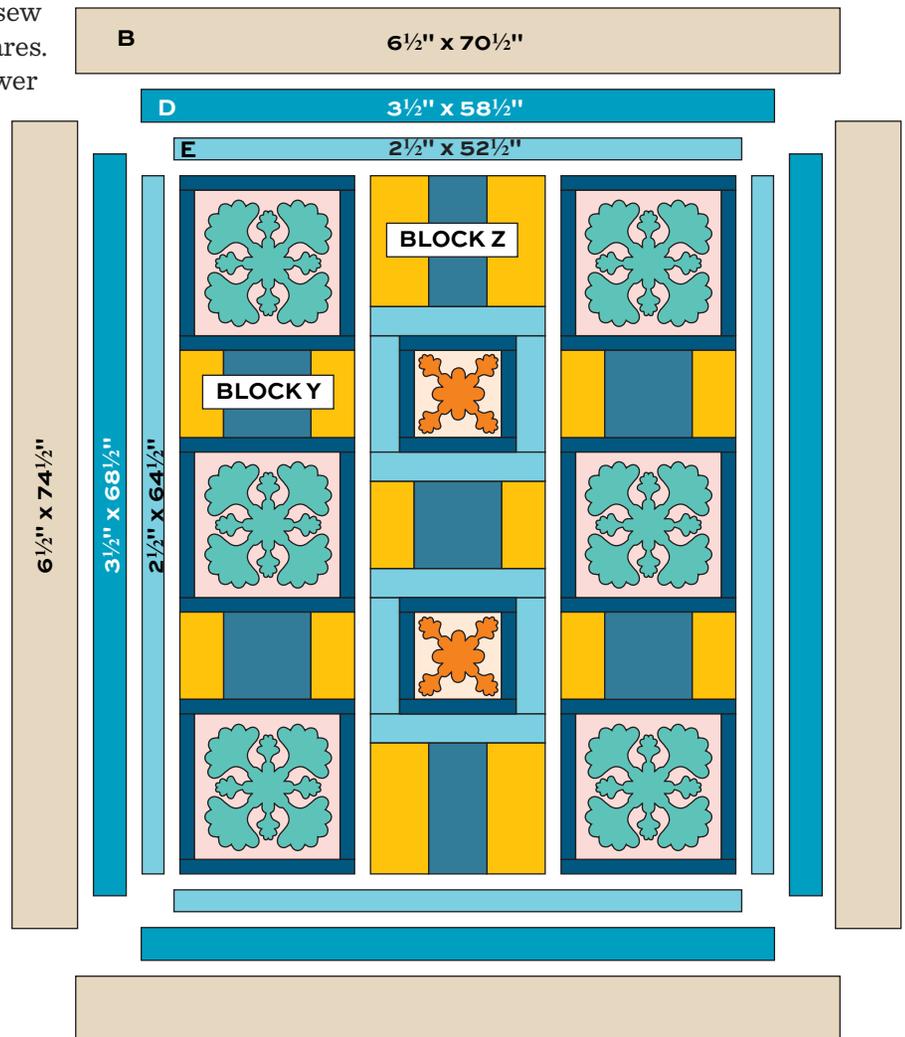

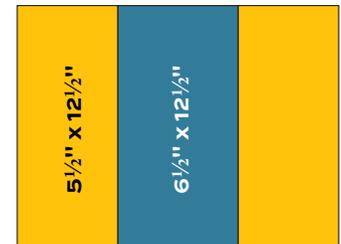

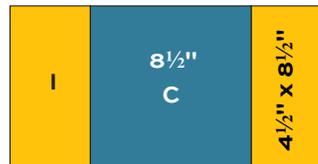

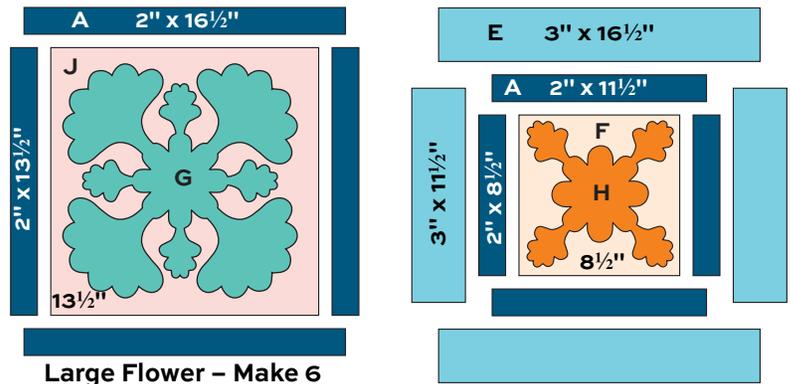

1. Make a complete drawing of each appliqué flower by tracing the quarter motif. Rotate the pattern and trace the other 3 quarters. Appliqué the flowers to the background squares using your favorite method. If you choose to fuse the appliqué, trace the complete motifs onto the paper side of paper-backed fusible web. Following manufacturer's instructions, fuse traced patterns to the wrong side of the appropriate fabrics. Cut out parts on the drawn lines. Position and fuse the flower in the center of each background square following manufacturer's instructions. Finish the edges with a decorative machine stitch using contrasting thread, or use an invisible thread with a blind appliqué machine stitch. Trim the large background squares to $13\frac{1}{2}$ ". Trim the small background squares to $8\frac{1}{2}$ ".

Referring to the appliqué block diagrams, sew the appropriate strips to the trimmed squares. Make 6 large flower blocks and 2 small flower blocks.

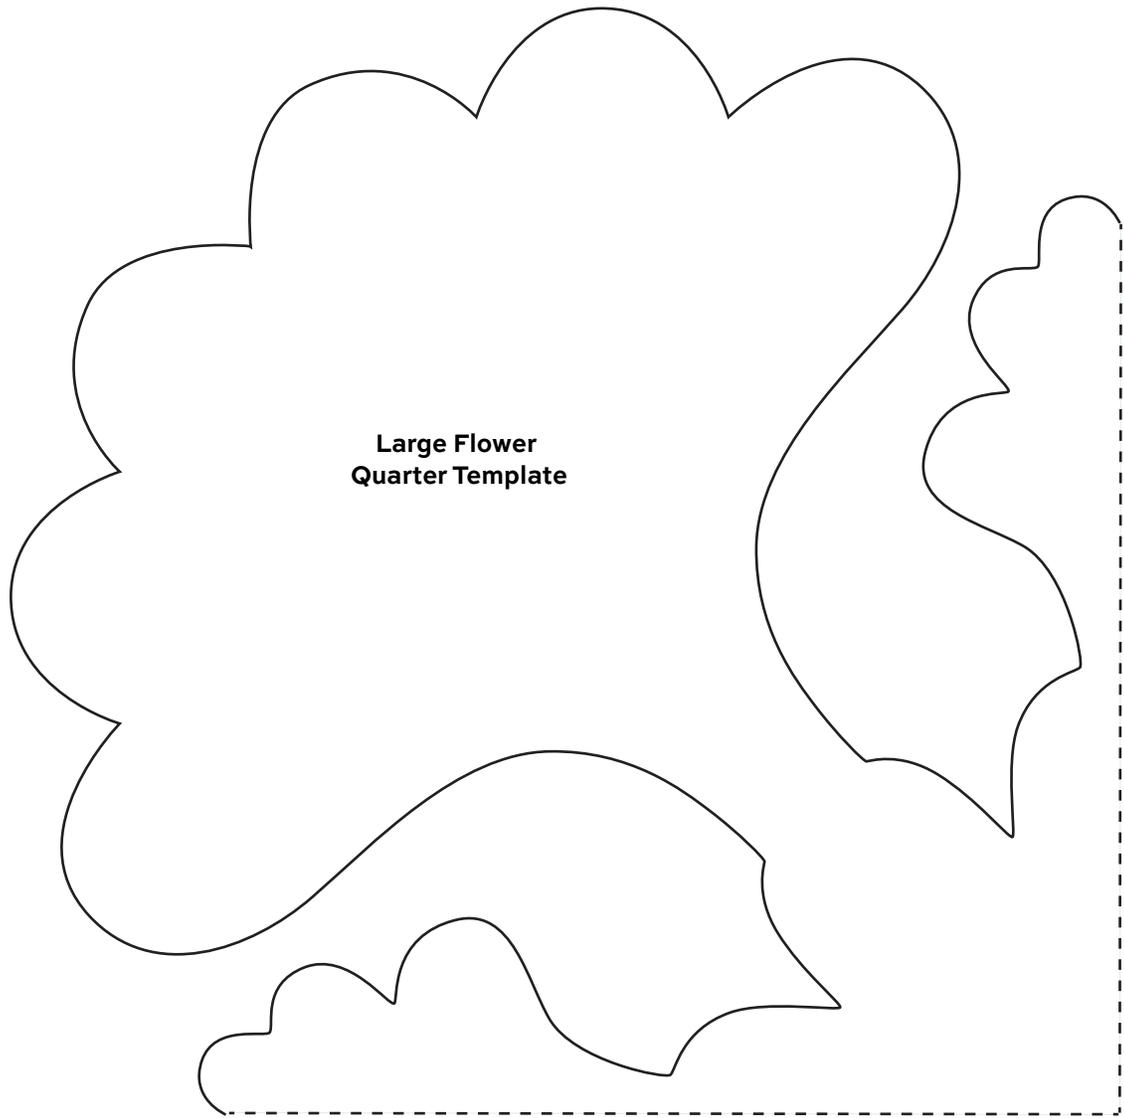

2. Referring to the Block Y and Block Z diagrams, join C and I patches to make 5 Block Y and 2 Block Z.
3. Referring to the Quilt Diagram, join 3 large flower blocks with 2 Block Y to make a vertical row. Make 2 rows. Join 3 Block Z with 2 small flower blocks to make the middle vertical row. Join the rows.
4. Sew the border strips in this order: Fabric E, Fabric D, and Fabric B. Always sew the longer side borders on first, and then the top and bottom borders.

Finishing the Quilt

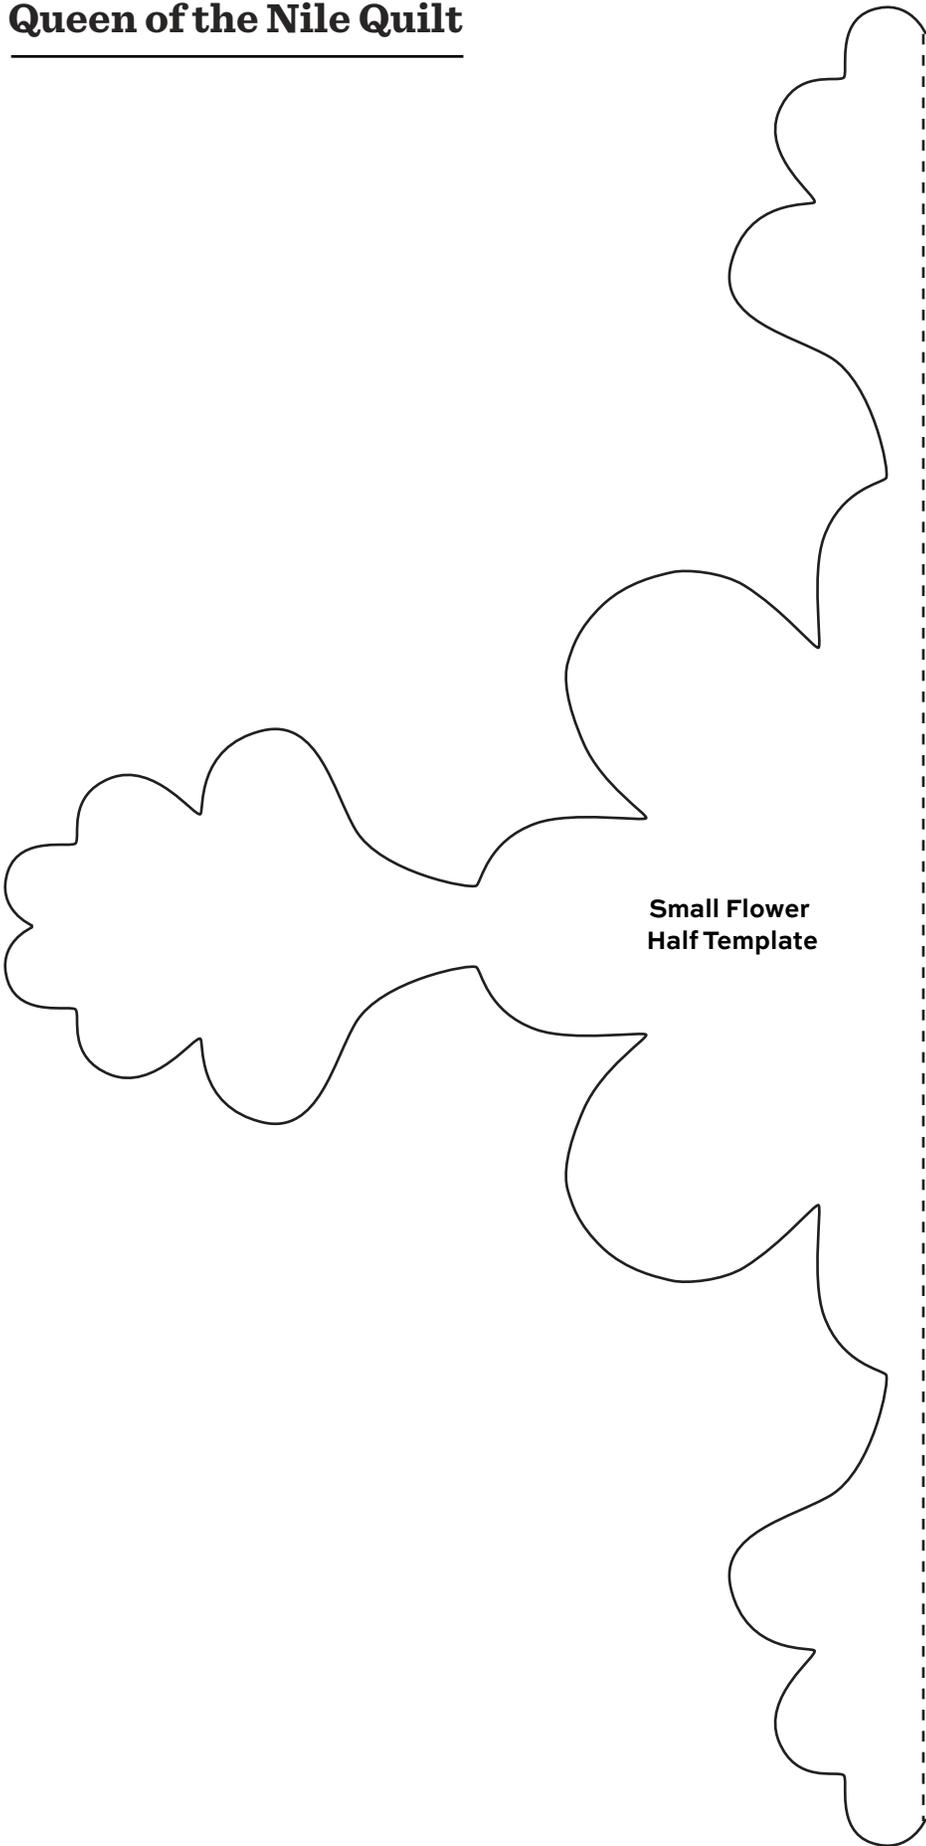

5. Layer the quilt with batting and backing and baste. Quilt in the ditch around borders and block patches. Quilt around the appliquéd motifs and around the printed motifs as you wish. Bind to finish the quilt.
