About Lady Rose
Made up of daring designs, edging into the art deco era. Colorwise, her collection includes some of the purples she wore while the family was still in mourning for Cousin Matthew. However, her collection also features some of the rich, cobalt blues and bright, hot pinks that are so becoming to her coloring and her age. This collection also includes faux-knits and argyles that the Prince of Wales made so popular during the 1920’s.

Introducing Andover Fabrics new Collection: DOWNTON ABBEY by Kathy Hall
Quilt designed by Matthew Pridemore

Quilt  finished 64” x 88”

This quilt design is inspired by the Art Deco style that emerged after World War I, which was characterized by the use of rich colors and bold geometric shapes. Art Deco represented luxury, glamour and exuberance, which sum up Downton Abbey's Lady Rose quite well. This quilt uses a combination of traditional and paper piecing techniques. It is a stunning project for an intermediate quilter.
